

POP

Rescued off the streets of Tijuana as a young puppy, Pop, was dragging himself around looking for help. Vets determined his paralysis was due to blunt trauma causing his spine to separate. He is wheel chair bound for life, however it does not stop Pop. He runs and plays ball like a professional athlete. Pop is truly an unstoppable force.